Are there any restrictions at the ceremony/church we should know about?

Are there any restrictions at the reception I should know about?

Are there any divorced/separated parents or other family situations I should know about?

Will you be seeing each other before the ceremony?

Are there any surprises you are planning for your guests for the ceremony/reception I should be aware of (getaway car, send off, gospel choir, sparklers, fireworks, etc)

Overall, what are your expectations of your wedding day photography?

What do you hope for from the pictures of just the two of you?

Are there any parent expectations of the wedding photography that I should be aware of?

I do my best to capture all the little details of the day, but are there any specific details you want to make sure I am aware of?

Do you have a Pinterest board that you would like me to see? If so, what is the site?
